Aurigo Software Technologies Inc. and SBS Group have teamed up to provide a pre-built Microsoft Dynamics AX-based solution the construction industry in the U.S.-a partnership that will help Microsoft Corp. make inroads into the professional services arena.

Under the agreement, SBS will market, implement and support Aurigo BRIX 6.0, the latest version of the company's web-based construction project management and inspection system, across the Midwest and the Eastern region of the country, according to the company.

The Microsoft-Aurigo ERP for construction offering combines Aurigo BRIX 6.0 integrated with Microsoft Project Server and Microsoft Dynamics AX to automate the critical areas of finance, HRMS, CRM, inventory and material management, according to the company.

"All we do is work with owners or builders of infrastructure in the public and private sector to streamline and automate construction processes," said Kevin Koenig, Vice President of U.S. Operations for Aurigo. "We recently partnered with SBS to build out our channel in the..."
